VILLA IS BELIEVED TO HAVE CUT AMERICAN COMMUNICATION LINE

Distrust of Carranza Again Disturbs U. S. Military Authorities—Funston Asks for More Troops.

(By International News Service.)

SAN ANTONIO, March 22.—Unconfirmed, but alarming reports that Villa raiders have succeeded in cutting the American line of communications are causing great uneasiness along the entire border today. About the military headquarters in this city there is growing uneasiness which is in marked contrast to the optimism of yesterday.

The fact is admitted that if any considerable force of bandits has gotten behind the United States troops, the position of General Pershing's column is a serious one. Distrust of Carranza returned with full force this morning when it became generally known that General Funston had asked for more soldiers. If the provisional ruler were in actual co-operation with this government, it would be entirely unnecessary to increase the force along the American line of communication.

Villa's Retreat Cut Off.

EL PASO, March 22.—General Pershing's command moved with such rapidity following the battle between Villa and the Carranza troops at Las Cruces that the retreat of the bandit murderer toward Babicora was completely cut off, according to dispatches received here from Juarez.

It is understood that Villa has taken to the mountains and his force lies approximately 30 miles southeast of Namiquipa. The exact location of the American troops has not been revealed, but it is believed that at least one column is within a few hours march of Villa if the battle has not already begun.

General Gavira thinks the bandits will make a decided stand before night if they have not already

YARD MASTER A SUICIDE.

(By International News Service.)

GREENSBORO, N. C., March 22.—Daniel D. Patterson, aged 40, formerly a yard master in this city for the Southern railway, today shot and killed his four children and then committed suicide. Medical men believe Patterson was insane.

TILLMAN BILL PASSES SENATE.

(By International News Service.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 22.—The Tillman armor plate bill which provides for a government plant at a cost not to exceed $11,000,000, has been passed by the senate. It is expected that the measure will pass the house without much serious opposition.

ARMY AEROPLANE AND TWO LIEUTENANTS LOST IN A MEXICAN DESERT

May Have Been Forced to Land Because of Engine Trouble—Have Only Enough Food and Water for Two Days.

(By International News Service.)

COLUMBUS, N. M., March 22.—Two lieutenants belonging to the First Aero squadron, are lost somewhere in the great unexplored tract, known as the Sierra Madre district. It is reported they have only rations enough for three days and two canteens of water between them and starvation.

Reports are current here to the effect that the two officers, Willis and Gorrell, who left this city Sunday in an army aeroplane, have become victims of snipers, but the military authorities do not give credence to the rumor.

The machine swung off above the roof tops in company with seven others and soon became detached. While it is possible the two lieutenants were shot down, the probability is they encountered engine trouble and were forced to land in some unfrequented spot to make repairs.

It is understood a thorough search has already been instigated in which several air-craft and a large body of cavalry will take part.

DEVASTATING FIRE SWEEPS

30 BLOCKS OF PARIS, TEXAS

(By International News Service.)

PARIS, TEXAS, March 22.—A disastrous fire swept more than 30 blocks in this city. It is reported the loss will run high in the millions of dollars. Starting from an unknown origin, the blaze first destroyed a cotton compress and then ate its way into the adjoining buildings.

WILBUR BY THE SEA

WILBUR - BY - THE - SEA, Port Orange, March 21.—Thursday evening an old-fashioned surprise party was given to D. J. Stewart, the well known dry goods merchant, of Rockford, Ill. The good old-fashioned games of our forefathers were played and great enthusiasm was shown. Mr. Stewart was taken greatly by surprise. Refreshments were daintily served. Miss Ross, the talented harp musician, played sweetly, accompanied by the best voices of the colony.

Saturday evening a bridge party was given in the clubhouse and was in charge of F. S. Bryant. Dancing and refreshments followed and a very enjoyable evening was spent.

Friday afternoon an accident happened in which Mr. Bates, of Riverside drive, had his car most seriously damaged. But we are thankful that all damage was to the car. It being a Ford, however, the tinner soon had it in running shape again.

Great excitement spread over the colony Saturday noon when a notice appeared on the bulletin board that ten lots, five hundred dollars in gold and a Ford machine were to be given away. It later developed that Mr. Wilbur had made this offer to any of the unmarried in the colony who would select a partner for life. The competition simmered down to one of the most gifted ladies of the colony and to a gentleman whose home address is Dayton, Ohio. As the ten days to which this offer was limited has not expired, the colony is on the quiver, expecting to hear that the munificent offer of Mr. Wilbur has been accepted.

Mrs. H. E. Whidden and her son,

Harold Whidden, Mrs. C. E. Ball and Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Eaton have returned from a trip to Palm Beach and Miami.

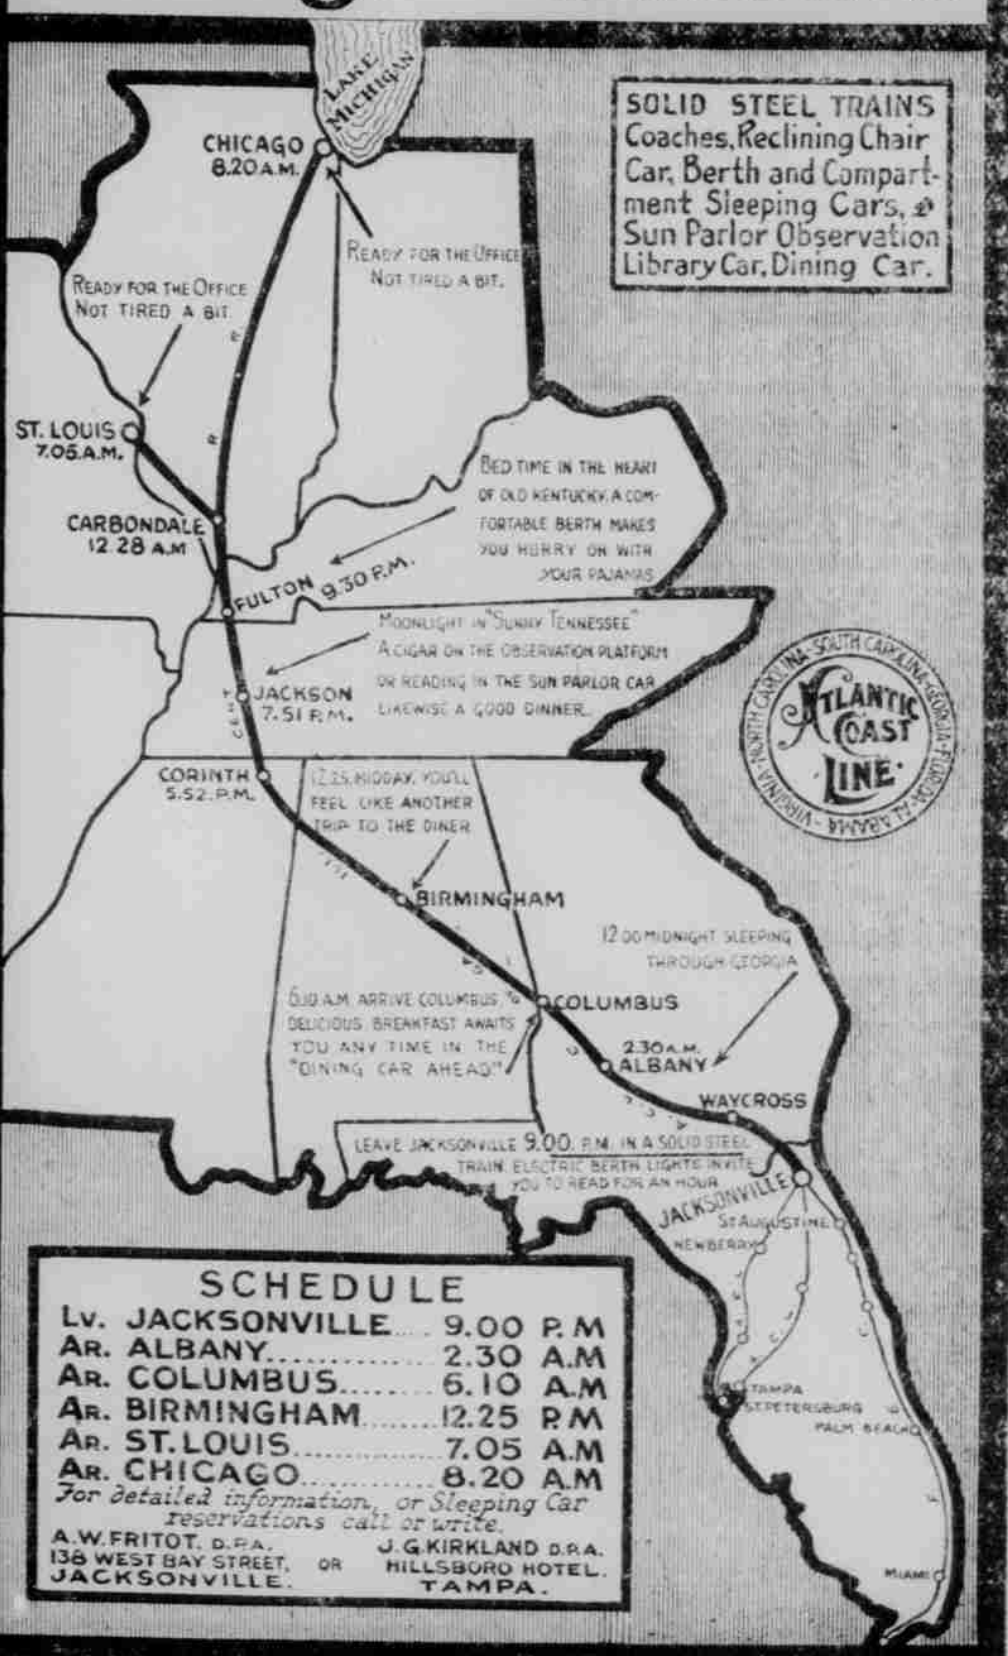

Mrs. Fellows and her daughter, Miss May Fellows, returned today from a two weeks' trip to Palm Beach and Miami.

The regular Sunday evening song service was held in the club house and was in charge of Mrs. Carrie Davis. A very interesting musical program was arranged.

A quartette, consisting of Miss Marie Williams, soprano; Miss Etta Bent, contralto; Lester Tilden, tenor, and Harold Bates, basso, gave a selection. Miss Etta Bates rendered a solo and a delightful duet was sung by Miss Williams and Mr. Tilden.

BROOKLYN NATIONALS CLOUT THE SPHERE IN SPITE OF ALL TWIRLERS

One thing or the other is dead certain: either the Brooklyn National league baseball squad encompassed here has gone crazy over batting, or the pitchers are a long time coming around. In view of the great hitting powers of the Superbas when they were going good in 1914 and led the league with the willow, we should say that the batters are just naturally hitting, and that the pitchers by no means altogether to blame.

When the Colts beat the Regulars yesterday by 9 to 6, they accumulated a gross total of seventeen safe swats, for a total of twenty-one bases, off Lester Stevenson in five innings and Monte Prieste in four. Stevenson said he was not feeling so peart because of an ailment in his shoulder, and Prieste has been doing as much infielding as pitching. Those alibi were good enough and were usual training camp stuff, but what about the fourteen hits for twenty-one bases of which the Regulars collected ten off Ed. Pfeffer in five innings, and four off Rube Marquard in four innings. Marquard does nothing but pitch, and Pfeffer's side issue has been confined to playing the outfield for first one team and then the other, and engaging in barbarous repartee with Charley Stengel when they happen to be on opposing nines.

First crack out of the box the Regulars hopped Pfeffer in the opening round for a double by O'Mara, triple by Stengel, double by Zaccheus D. Wheat and single by George Cutshaw. That harsh stuff netted three earned runs and Brother Pfeffer gave an imitation of a man who has thoughtlessly chewed up a sugar-coated quinine pill. The Regulars bunched three hits in the fifth inning, but Pfeffer was not injured in the run column.

He escaped in quite a devious way. O'Mara opened the fifth with a single to left. He thought it was a double, but learned different. Larry Miller proved that his arms were good for something besides batting, and exterminated O'Mara by a throw to Olson. One hit wasted. Daubert singled to center and was forced by Stengel. Zaccheus Wheat made the third and last hit of the round, and went to a horrid doom, thus:

Stengel took third on Wheat's single to center. Ivan Olson took Jimmy Hickman's throw from center and found Stengel overrunning third. Mowrey had been drawn away from third to back up Olson, and the bag was uncovered. Stengel began to clown up and down, off third emitting strange cries. Olson ran over as if to personally put the kibosh on Stengel, albeit he had no chance. Z. Wheat, meanwhile, was away off first waiting eventualities. They came. Olson swung underhand to Jack Coombs, at first, and Coombs deftly put the bee, or rather, the ball, on Z. D. Wheat, to the profound amazement of that athlete, and also of the spectators.

This was not a trick play in the strict sense of the word. It was somewhat along the lines of a number of other plays the Superbas have, in which they appear to bend solely upon the destruction of one baserunner, while in very truth they are after another one, who is being sinfully beguiled into taking too long a lead. Olson's watchfulness and quick thinking in seizing upon the laxity of Z. Wheat, and Coomb's preparedness for the totally unexpected throw, cheered the innocent bystanders immensely. We would like to hear what George Stallings would say if one of his men were caught as Wheat was, but it is only fair to Zack Wheat to say that almost any runner would have been trapped under the same circumstances.

nic on the beach, then a good game of cards at the Lindsay cottage and afterwards refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Morris, Oneonta, N. Y., are stopping at the Ormond.

Earle H. Reynolds, of Chicago, has joined Mrs. Reynolds at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richman, Philadelphia, Pa., are stopping at the Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Conaghan, Toledo, Ohio, are registered at the Ormond.

Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Belding, of Erie, Pa., will spend about ten days at the Ormond.

There are also many luncheon and dinner parties. Miss Jean Lindsay, of Rochester, N. Y., was entertained at luncheon yesterday by Miss Lucy Olney, of Thompson, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Brown, of Toronto, Canada, entertained at dinner in the Ormond dining room in honor of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Felber, of LaCrosse, Wis., and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Olds, of Charles City, Iowa.

Remembered.
"The only visit I have paid to the old home town since I left it, 14 years ago," stated Sissors Smith, "proved a great disappointment. The only man who recognized me, after I had wandered for hours around the familiar streets, 'neath the drooping ellums and all such as that, was old Uncle Riley Rezzidew, who knew me the minute he set eyes on me by a debt of six oits which he claimed I had owed him when I went away."—Kansas City Star.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Ebersole, Mrs. Richard Diamond and Mrs. J. Chas. Kerr, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are stopping at the Ormond.

"OUR NAVY" PROVES INTERESTING TOPIC

INTERESTED CROWD ATTENDS
FINE LECTURE ON THE NAVY
GIVEN BY REAR ADMIRAL INGERSOLL.

A large crowd of peninsula residents, numbering well over 300 people, attended the lecture given Tuesday evening at the Daytona Beach Methodist church by Rear Admiral Royal R. Ingersoll, of LaPorte, Ind., on "The United States Navy."

Rear Admiral Ingersoll's lecture was given as one of the last numbers of the Tourist Bible class lecture course, the numbers of which have been presented during the entire season. It was well illustrated with stereopticon slides which were shown by Mrs. R. S. Holmes and proved to be full of condensed information, of a very interesting nature concerning the fighting strength of our navy.

Mr. Ingersoll described the effect of a single shot from some of our largest guns and told of the deadly accuracy of our naval mariners. He also compared our fighting fleets with those of other countries of the world.

The lecture started shortly after 7:30 o'clock in the evening and continued for over two hours. These two hours were crowded with more educational information than several large volumes and the entire lecture was greatly appreciated by all in attendance.

So, and so only, do you take the next straight step forward, as you stand strong where you are now; so only can you think the curtain will be drawn back and there will be revealed to you what lies beyond.—Philips Brooks

LARGE NUMBER WILL BE PRESENT AT THE TOURISTS' BANQUET

GRAND BANQUET, CLOSING NUMBER OF THE TOURIST CLASS LECTURE COURSE, TO BE HELD FRIDAY.

Friday evening of this week will occur one of the principal events of the season on the Peninsula. The annual banquet of the Tourist Bible Class of the Daytona Beach Methodist church has become a Peninsula affair. Elaborate preparations are being made to take care of 300 people in the banquet hall of the church. The Rev. Orla J. Price, of Lansing, Mich., is now on his way here to deliver the principal address of the evening.

President R. S. Holmes of the Tourist class will be toastmaster. The following program will be carried out after the dinner:

Plano solo, P. Van Horn.
Toast, "Ideals," R. S. Holmes.
Toast, "Peninsula," Mayor M. C. Guy.
Toast, "Ups and Downs of a Business Manager," Geo. W. Guard.
Toast, "Our New Pipe Organ," Mrs. C. A. Randall.
Toast, "Woman's Work in Civic Life," Mrs. Henry Mitchell.
Address, "Social Christianity," Orla J. Price, Ph.D.
Valedictory, "Vision of the Future," Rev. John Treadwell.

All those who attend Friday evening are requested to bring their own knife, fork and spoon as there will not be enough to go around at the church. The supper will start at 5:30 p. m., and a fine meal is promised to all who attend.

This banquet will be one of the main features of the season for the tourists and will be carried out each year in the future, according to the present plans of the Tourist Class officials.

SEABREEZE PERSONALS

Mrs. M. A. Fuller and C. L. Fuller, of Minneapolis, Minn., are among the recent arrivals at the Princess Issena.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Chaplean, of Montreal, Can., are pleasantly located at the Princess Issena. They have been making a tour of the south and will enjoy a stay on the beach before leaving for northern points.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Campbell, of St. Louis, Mo., who have been making a tour of the southern part of the state, have arrived at the Princess Issena, where they will remain for an indefinite stay enjoying the many attractions of the beach.

Mrs. Peter Vredenburg, of Springfield, Ill., has returned to the Seaside Inn after a delightful trip down the east coast. Mrs. Vredenburg visited in Palm Beach, Miami and Tampa and thoroughly enjoyed her stay in the southern part of the state. She will remain here for an indefinite time.

Books.

It is not sufficient to merely stuff ourselves with various collections of books; unless we masticate everything thoroughly books will not give us strength and nourishment.—Locke.

Mosquitoes Suspected in 1774.

A manuscript, written by a priest in 1774, has just been brought to light in Paris, which indicates that even at that time the mosquito was suspected of transmitting diseases, as shown by the following passage: "An ecclesiastic of lively wit told me that he suspected that the fevers from which the inhabitants of this country (Tunis) suffered, came from the bite of the mosquito, which, after sucking at an infected cadaver, or a poisonous flower, attacked human beings."

Expected a Real Boat Ride.

A contest, for the enlargement of the Sunday school, entitled "A Trip to Palestine," had been planned by the superintendent. One mother, whose son George was a member of the school, hearing that the superintendent intended taking the scholars for a boat ride, hastened to remark, "Them can go what wants to, but I don't know whether I'll let George go or not."—National Monthly.

DAYTONA BEACH LOCALS

Harry Horn returned Tuesday afternoon from a short trip to the county seat on legal business. Mr. Horn made the trip to DeLand by auto, which method of travel he finds to be the most convenient.

Mrs. Theo. Sengstak, of lower Daytona Beach, left on a short trip to Jacksonville this morning and will visit her son at the state metropolis for a few days before returning to the lovely Sengstak residence on Peninsula drive and the river front.

Rev. Dupont Clark and family, who have been occupying the Fields residence on Halifax avenue and the river front, Daytona Beach, for the last season, left this morning on their return to their home in New Hampshire. They have greatly enjoyed the winter here and may return to the "Land of Sunshine and Flowers" and the peninsula next year.

Mrs. W. C. Haight and daughter left Tuesday morning on their return to their home in Peekskill, N. Y., after enjoying a pleasant winter at the home of Mrs. Haight's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Jaycocks, on Peninsula drive. They will join Mr. Haight at their home in Peekskill. Mr. Haight was a visitor here during the early part of the winter and found it necessary to return to the north on account of business.

J. K. Everettson, of Boston, Mass., who recently arrived for a month's stay at the beach at one of the local hotels, left Tuesday afternoon immediately after receiving a message of his mother's illness at their old home in Lowell, Mass. Mr. Everettson expects to return next year for a vacation at the beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Bleekman left this morning on a week's auto trip to Jacksonville and return. They were accompanied by Mrs. Edick, a friend of theirs who has been living in one of the Bleekman apartments. On their return trip they will attend the state good roads convention, to be held at St. Augustine.

Mrs. D. F. O'Neil and children, of Chicago, Ill., are in Daytona Beach and are stopping at the Seaside Inn.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Rogers and E. A. Walker, of Jacksonville, are registered for a short stay at the Seaside Inn.

A party consisting of Miss V. Blake, Miss Lottie Kelly, Mrs. L. B. Miller, Miss Ruby Miller, Mrs. E. R. Peters and Miss M. Peters were registered at the Seaside Inn for lunch Monday.

A party including Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Gibbs, Mrs. H. N. Standart, of Cleveland, O., and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Barbour, of Chebrusford, Mass., will enjoy an indefinite stay at the Seaside Inn.

WILLARD-MORAN FIGHT, NO CLINCHES ALLOWED

(By FRANK G. MENKE.)

NEW YORK, March 22.—The best possible guarantee that the Willard-Moran fight will be a real battle from gong to gong is that Charlie ("Old Goodbye") White is to be the referee.

"The fairest, squarest man that ever was connected with the fight game—referee of unerring skill." That's the bouquet thrown at "Old Goodbye" by followers of the padded mitt game—and it's a well earned one.

For more than a quarter of a century Charlie White has been refereeing pugilistic encounters. Over that sweep of time he has been the third man in the ring in practically every important battle that has been fought. He has given decision in hundreds of bouts—and never once have his rulings raised the cry of "robber."

Won't Contenance Clinching.

"Watch the boys closely; make them follow the rules; play no favorites." That's "Old Goodbye's" recipe for success as a referee.

Frequent clinching spoils the fans' interest in bouts. But there is no bunny hugging with Charlie White as the master of ceremonies.

"The Marquis of Queensbury rules specifically bar clinching," said "Old Goodbye." "Those boxing laws really were framed to prohibit that very practice. Under the old London Prize Ring rules clinching and gouging were allowed. But the new boxing regulations excluded both."

"Some referees permit hitting in clinches with one hand free. That is a violation of the rules. If only one hand is free it means that the other is engaged in clinching, doesn't it? And clinching is not allowed."

Forces Warriors to Fight.

White refused to outline his course of action in the big affair next Saturday night, claiming it is one of his principles not to discuss a battle in which he is scheduled to officiate.

But the one thing you may be sure of: "There'll be no more toe-to-toe fighting in that bout than in any that has been staged in Gotham in many many moons. 'Old Goodbye' forces the boys to fight—or he won't linger in the ring."

Some years ago Charlie was refereeing a mill. The men didn't show any disposition to mix it. They just loafed along. Time and again "Old Goodbye" ordered the battlers to "get busy." But they wouldn't, whereupon "Old Goodbye" hopped out of the ring, into his coat and hat—and went home.

Refereed Biggest Bouts.

White acted as referee in practically all of Jim Jeffries' big fights with the exception of the Johnson quarrel. Tex Richard officiated there, with White on hand as alternate. The veteran was in the ring in the big battles in which McCoy, Corbett, Sharkey, Maher, Fitzsimmons and Rublin figured, as well as refereeing practically all the championship bouts fought in and around New York in the lighter divisions of pugilism during the old days.

"How did you get the nickname,

50 or 600 Feet on the Halifax River

back to Peninsula Drive, at $7.00 a front foot.

50 Foot Lots on the Ocean,

500 feet deep

for $6.00 a front foot.

These prices cannot be beaten and this property is going to sell quick.

"Old Goodbye?" we asked him recently.

"A sport writer in the old days attached it to me. He said I had an eagle-eye, that I never missed seeing anything in the ring. He referred to me several times as 'Old Goodbye' and the name has clung to me since."

His Friends Are Legion.

Despite his long career as a ring authority, White is only 42 or 43 years old. He began refereeing in a professional way when he was 17 or 18 in the amateur clubs in New York. His infallible judgment, his fairness and his honesty soon brought a demand for his services in the professional clubs and in a few years he became the best known and most popular referee in the United States.

White numbers his friends by the tens of thousands. There is about him a sincerity that forces one to believe instantly—and then permanently—in his honesty and fairness. He's the kind of man that you'd trust to the end of all things.

When he isn't dabbling in politics or pugilism, he is gathered old, classical books and paintings. "Old Goodbye's" collection of books contains some of the rarest volumes in existence and are almost priceless.

"Books have been my hobby since I was a kid," said "Old Goodbye." "When I was a boy I used to read English history. The stories about the knights of old instilled in me an ambition to be like them in fairness and honorableness. They became my models in my boyhood—and they remain so now."

Did It, Even Then?

No doubt the weather forecaster or Noah's day spattered something about "a deficiency in precipitation" as he went down for the third time.

His Hallucination.

"When I take too much quinine for my malaria, as I occasionally do," confessed the Old Dodger, "it affects my head and makes me think very foolish things. I remember once of getting so that I heard queer noises in my head, and for nearly a whole day fancied I was an 'Hon.' and was being solicited by my many friends to run for the legislature."—Kansas City Star.

You are paying for the noise in your office!

Noise is expensive.
You are paying the bill!
Of all places in the world where it should be quiet, the office is one. You want to think—the clerical force wants to think.

You can't do it in the midst of the rattley-bang, clackety-clack typewriter noise you have been used to. Most of the clatter in the office is due to the operation of typewriters. Where there is a large number, the confusion is often unbearable and results in decreased efficiency.

The "Silent Smith" will reduce the noise in your office to almost nothing. It will enable you and your help to produce.

DAILY NEWS MAY BE PUBLISHED TILL MIDDLE OF APRIL

In view of the fact that Saracina's Virtuoso band will remain in Daytona until April 15, and the Florida Bankers' Association convening here April 7 and 8, The Daily News has concluded to continue publication until the middle of the month if a sufficient amount of business is secured to warrant the extra expense.

The suggestion that The Daily News be continued, was made by a number of prominent business men who feel that the season this year will not close until a couple of weeks later than usual, due to the great number of people who desire to remain to enjoy the wonderful Florida spring climate. The fact that Easter does not occur until April 23 also has a tendency to lengthen the season and as a consequence the hotels will remain open later than usual and the through trains until a later time than customary.

See the Girl in the Tire?

From a modest beginning the present Kelly-Springfield industry was developed, and while the output has increased over a thousand fold, the tires are still made by hand in the same old careful way.

An electric tractor is used by the Pennsylvania Railroad company to shift cars in the streets of Jersey City. On one of the wheels is a Kelly-Springfield sectional block tire which has seen twenty-two months continual service, during which period three other block type of tires of different makes were worn out; these were gradually replaced by Kelly-Springfield blocks, until now all four wheels are equipped.

MEXICAN SITUATION PRINCIPAL TOPIC IN WASHINGTON, D. C.

Capt. B. J. Pacetti was in the city from Ponce Park today. Capt. Pacetti, who is United States inspector of bird reservations of the Southwest, was called to Washington, D. C., recently on business in connection with that position and had only returned from the capital on Monday. Capt. Pacetti says no one in Washington has time apparently just now to talk of anything but the Mexican situation, and the feeling seems to prevail that the Villa expedition will ultimately result in war with all Mexico.

Miss Bruske, who is a talented vocalist, has been assisting while here in the choir of St. Mary's Episcopal church and has also taken a prominent part in the Palmetto Club musicals. ## COMMODORE BURGOWNE REWARDS BAND MEN

Director Rocco Saracina, of Saracina's Virtuoso Concert band, received a note Tuesday afternoon from Commodore Burgoyne, with check enclosed for each member of the band, in which the commodore wrote: "Your band has been very nice about playing extra numbers for dances and I would like to attest my personal appreciation of their courtesy."

This thoughtful act on the part of Commodore Burgoyne is deeply appreciated by the various members of the band and they feel they have no words with which to appropriately express their thanks for the kind words and accompanying solid token of Commodore Burgoyne's appreciation of their efforts to please the public.

Optimist Department, Devoted to Cheering up "The Land of Sunshine."
(BY GENE JONES.)

This is the most peculiar looking town right now—full of big men, little men, fat men, thin men, dwarfs, Indians, cowboys and a whole lot more. Yesterday when I drove along Beach street I thought it would be rather humorous to hear what a stranger had to say about the town—providing he was not acquainted with the fact that Johnnie Jones was here.

Funny things happen to me. Remember that "joke" I sprung on you Monday? One man said to another, "It is the little things that count," and the other man said, "Tis true, this true," scratching his head? Well, underneath it I announced if anybody didn't understand the point, to come around to the office and I'd draw a map for them. Yesterday there was such a long string waiting for me that I thought the New York bread-line must have gotten lost!

One man stopped me on the street. Said he, "You must think we're a lot of 'sims' in this town. I saw the point the first thing." Then I said, "That isn't fair. You KNOW!" And he walked off mad. Unreasonable cuss! That's the way with mortals—never willing to admit that little things bother them.

Here's a poem that may seem a trifle sad for the Optimist column, but to be frank, the sad facts are often the truest facts in this funny old place we call a Christian world. Now glance below and see if you don't agree with me:

THE WORLD EXPECTS A GRIN.

It's mighty strange, I must confess,
If trouble you are in;
If you are down and in distress,
The world expects a grin.

No matter what your sorrows be,
No matter what the pain;
Your fellow men will look to see,
You smile and smile again.

If all the world has turned you down,
If nothing's left but death;
You must not gloom, you must not frown—
Just grin with your last breath.

Your heart is breaking, hope is dead,
Your dear ones pass away;
The world whirls on in joyous tread,
Throughout the live long day.

And Father Time in future years,
Will help you to endure;
He'll dull your pain and dry your tears
But mem'ry has no cure.

With desperation some will try,
In sorrow or in wrath,
To pluck the joys that seem to lie
Beside the Primrose path.

But don't forget, the only thing,
To ease the mental strife,
Are smiles that joy to others bring,
Through years of wasted life.

And if you hide your sorrows deep,
You'll find it worth your while,
For when you reap eternal sleep,
Your memory'll be a smile.

SCHOOL NOTES

MILLINERY SALE.

Helen Purdue, 15 Volusia Ave. If

The musical monologue, "The Priestess of Nature and Her Nine Nymphs," which had been scheduled to be given at the Palmetto clubhouse Thursday evening, under the direction of Mrs. Jacques Livingston, for the benefit of the building fund, has been postponed, to a date in the near future, the announcement of which will later be given.

Grammar.

Grammar is the science, or art, of correct speech. It is quite true that some people are able to speak and write correctly without having studied the rules as laid down in grammar, but it is none the less true that but for a knowledge of the rules the majority of people would write and speak in a most barbarous fashion.

Bal Masque a

Brilliant Success

Exceedingly brilliant and attractive proved the Bal Masque held in the Casino Burgoyne Tuesday evening under the direction of the ladies of the Palmetto club, and the especial effort of the charming president, Mrs. Murray L. Stanley.

Masqueraders were there in the greatest numbers, representing every imaginable character, princesses, knights, knaves, so completely disguised that it would be difficult for their most intimate friends to recognize them. The on-lookers were many, also. A large number of spectators were gathered to witness the pranks of their friends in costume.

The grand march started promptly at 8:30, after seven gentlemen had been appointed judges to award the prizes.

The judges were selected from among the guests at the various hotels and included H. H. Little, of Boston; C. S. Cannon, of New York; Thomas Barber, Boston; W. O. Briggs, Detroit; Ralph King, Toronto; R. L. Parks, Springfield, Mass.; Horace G. Burrows, Philadelphia. No partiality was shown, and it was indeed no small task to select from among this splendid number of beautifully costumed ladies and gentlemen, the winners. Were it possible, each and every masquerader would have received a prize. After much deliberation it was decided to give the prize for the handsomest ladies' costume to Miss Erma Barry. This young lady represented the "Queen of the Sea," in a beautiful seagreen costume. The handsomest gentlemen's costume was awarded Master Santa Hilyard, as a Spanish cavalier. Madam Wiggins received the prize for the most unique ladies' costume. Her dress, made of "Daily News" newspapers, was most original. Mr. Hinsky, the most unique gentleman in a Colonial dancing master's make-up. The funniest ladies' costume was given to Mr. Wheeler, dressed as a "perfectly" old-fashioned lady of 1860, with a love of a bonnet. Much laughter was heard when Mr. Wheeler's name was announced. Mr. Charles F. Bish, from Illinois, received the prize for the funniest man's costume. He was dressed in a bathing suit, full-dress coat, and blacked to his finger tips. Mrs. Huston was charming as a real Colonial Dame with all the airs and graces of the by-gone days and the prize for the ladies oldest costume was awarded her. For the oldest gentlemen's costume, Mr. Graham Thompson won the prize. His was a variegated creation on the dress suit order.

After the prizes had been awarded dancing was inaugurated which continued until midnight. Several old-fashioned numbers were given Mrs. F. M. Davidsnn presiding at the piano.

Entertained at Auction

Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. A. H. Kling and Mrs. Harriet A. Caswell entertained most charmingly at auction at Mrs. Kling's beautiful residence, 120 Magnolia avenue, which was artistically decorated with roses, potted plants and ferns.

Seven tables were devoted to cards and honors were carried by Mrs. Rollin Stevens, who received first prize, Mrs. Holroyd second, and Mrs. Mitchell the third.

After the card game, during the visit hour, a delicious luncheon was served by the gracious hostesses.

Madame Wilkens and Miss Schutt Entertain

Mrs. Lillie Wilkens and her charming sister, Miss Schutte, entertained a number of their friends, Tuesday afternoon at their pretty home on Wisconsin Place. The ladies played five hundred to their hearts' content, and after the card game, prizes were awarded for the highest scores. Miss Adelaide Barry received first, Mrs. F. Skirlo second, Mrs. Marie Schmidt third, Mrs. J. Fitch Walfer fourth and Mrs. Otto Wissner the fifth.

After the card game a sumptuous repast was served, consisting of Delmonico croquettes, salad, ice cream, cake and coffee, and a visiting hour was enjoyed.

First Patent for Plow.

The first patent for a plow is said to have been obtained by Joseph Foljamb in 1730. His invention was closely followed by other plow makers, and he struck the same practical idea that has been so elaborated in the soil-turning instrument of today.

St. Paul Guild

St. Paul's Guild met Tuesday evening at the parochial hall on Myrtle avenue, and enjoyed the evening at pinochle and five hundred. The gathering was most congenial and pleasant, assuring everyone of a good time.

At pinochle Miss Kate Dittman was the winner of the first prize, while the second prize was awarded Mrs. George Wittman. At five hundred, Mrs. F. E. French carried off the first prize, and the second went to Mrs. Mills.

After the card game a social hour was enjoyed, during which light refreshments were served. The guild will meet again next Tuesday evening at the parochial hall.

No Cause for Worry.

Moreover, they have had to bear the brunt of oriental onslaught. The South Slavs, or Serbs, Bulgarians, Herzegovina and Macedonia tell under those Comanches of Asia, the Turks.

VISITING DAYTONA AFTER

ABSENCE OF FIVE YEARS

After five years' absence from Daytona, Daniel McLaren is greeting friends in the city. For several years Mr. McLaren and family maintained a beautiful home at Daytona Beach, which burned. After the home was destroyed the family ceased coming here but remained at their Cincinnati home in order that the studies of the children might not be interrupted.

Mr. McLaren has just recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia and is in Daytona to recuperate from his illness. He expects to remain for a couple of weeks.

It is needless to say that Mr. McLaren complimented the many improvements made in Daytona and on the peninsula since his last visit, five years ago.

ORMOND

ORMOND, March 21.—The street fair of Ormond, which has been given each year for the past few years, was again held on Tuesday, March 14th, and will pass into history as being the most successful financially as well as one of the most enjoyable fetes Ormond has yet given.

Palmetto street from New Britain avenue to Lincoln street was again closed to public traffic, the entire block presenting a gay and festive appearance with its appropriate decorations of palmettos, bamboos and bunting and the ever moving throngs of gaily dressed visitors. The stores had closed for the afternoon and everybody was en fete.

Early in the day the booths which had been erected and decorated with palmettos, etc., were filled with their many attractions to tempt those who wished to participate in this worthy enterprise. There was the booth for fancy and utility articles, seeing which "still the wonder grew" how so many fascinating things could have been fashioned by the deft and artistic hands of the committee and its friends. Over this booth presided Mrs. Eliza Graves. The pure food tables, Miss Alice McNary, chairman, were loaded with toothsome and tempting viands. The candy booth, in charge of the Misses Hanson and Sealoom, held its usual amount of confections of all description. The flower booth, presided over by Miss Jean Lindsay, Miss Ella Graves and Mrs. Theodore Fluhart, was charming, as was also the artistically arranged and decorated booth for oranges, in charge of Mrs. George E. Halliday.

The ice cream tables, in charge of Mrs. Abbott and Mrs. Frank Mason, offered its quota of cooling refreshments. The vegetable booth, Mrs. John G. Dab, chairman, and the jelly display of James E. Carnell, were most attractive and well patronized. A delicious hot lunch, in charge of Mrs. John A. Reilly, was served from 11:30 to 2:30 on the lawn, and afternoon tea, Mrs. Isaac H. Sawyer, chairman, from 3:00 until 5:00.

The entertainment committee, Mrs. J. D. Price, chairman, had many and varied attractions, consisting of fortune telling, Miss Owens in charge, who outlined the fate of all applicants; the fishing pond in charge of Miss Sawyer; the popcorn booth, under the management of George Carleton; besides the vaudeville, which gave two performances before crowded and satisfied houses.

As always, the prettiest feature of the day was the baby parade which occurred at 3:15. This was in charge of Mrs. John M. Richmond, and seemed to surpass all previous efforts in this line. The babies and children in their dainty costumes and flower bedecked carriages, were most fascinating and charming, many of the costumes being very unique in beauty and design.

Members from the Deland band discoursed music throughout the day, and three orchestra pieces furnished music for the vaudeville.

The fete was under the general chairmanship of Mrs. Geo. H. Sage, of whose tact and wonderful executive ability the ladies had evidence last year. Mrs. George E. Halliday, Mrs. Isabelle B. Stimpson and Mrs. Macon Thornton had charge of the publicity bureau. In fact, all of the ladies proved themselves so efficient and helpful that it is difficult not to mention many more by name. The committee of men, John A. Reilly, chairman, also did valiant duty in preparing the grounds, erecting the booths and in decorating generally. Something between $350.00 and $900.00 will be realized when all the returns are in. The ladies certainly feel under obligations to the guests of the hotels, the tourists and the friends from Daytona, for their presence and very liberal patronage.

Miss Mabel Allen, of Winter Park, Fla., came on Tuesday and will be the guest of Mrs. Carrie Simrall while in Ormond.

Mrs. Isabelle B. Stimpson recently presented the Village Improvement Association with a beautiful gavel block of white marble with the inscription "Ormond V. I. A." in gold lettering outlined in black on the face and on the back the date "1916"; also with a handsome table in mission style for the use of the president. Mrs. Stimpson, although not having been able to be in Ormond for the past two or three seasons, until for a short stay at the present time, still gives substantial evidence of her interest in the club and its work.

Mr. and Mrs. James Leslie, of Clinton, Iowa, are now occupying the George Howe cottage on New Britain avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie are cousins of the Howes and this is their first visit to Ormond.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. MacKendrick, of Galt, Canada, are in Ormond for a few weeks' stay as guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Milligan, on Palmetto street. Mr. MacKendrick is a nephew of Mrs. Milligan and is a prominent business man of Galt. He and Mrs. MacKendrick are delighted with the village, the golf links and think the climate delightful, the town beautiful as to situation, etc.

Mrs. John Nichols, who has been with her sister, Miss Margaret Howe, for the past few weeks, expects to return to her home in Tewksbury, Mass., on Thursday of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. John M. Richmond have again experienced a loss in the death of Benjamin P. Shively, senior senator from Indiana, which occurred at Washington, D. C., on March 14th. Senator Shively married a cousin of Mrs. Richmond, and Mrs. Foster, and his passing away following so closely upon that of Mrs. Foster's husband and their mother seems to bring their sorrow very near home.

At the morning services at the Union church Sunday, a niece of Miss Jean Lindsay gave two very pleasing solos, accompanied by a violin obligato rendered by Mr. Roentgen, the latter also giving a violin solo. The music is growing to be quite a feature of the Sunday morning services. At the close of the services members of the church remained for the regular annual meeting. The reports given all showed a very favorable as to the life and growth of the church and Sunday school, also the financial condition seems to have a very favorable outlook. The same officers, trustees, etc., were re-elected and Dr. Richmond received a unanimous call for another year of service with an increase in salary.

The regular meeting of the V. I. A. was held in the auditorium on Friday of last week. Mrs. J. D. Price in the chair. The new by-laws were read for a short stay. Mr. Maxon was the chairman of the revision committee. Mrs. Ada C. Hinkley, and were adopted by the association with a very few minor changes, so that now the club has an amended charter and new by-laws, these being much needed on account of the growth of the club and the new conditions which have arisen. The program, in charge of Mrs. George H. Sage, followed. This consisted in a book review, Mrs. Sage taking "Salt-water Ballads" by John Massfield, as her subject, giving an interesting sketch of the life of the poet and several charming selections from the ballads which were most effectively read. A social hour was then enjoyed. The hostesses of the were Miss Lucy E. Reilly, chairman, Miss Margaret Howe; Mrs. George Merritt and Mrs. J. G. Dab. Mr. and Mrs. George Maxon, of Leamington, Ontario, arrived in Ormond on Thursday and will be here for a short stay. Mr. Maxon was the son of Mrs. Mary Maxon whose whose home was on Lincoln avenue.

How beautifully the sympathetic tonal sweetness of Columbia Records brings out the sentiment, the heart-appeal, and touching simplicity of the fine old ballads!

All the romance of the Springtime of Love, of the age "when all the world was young," is expressed with tender, poetic charm in these Columbia Records:

ALICE—GUSTAV K. G.—"YOU, THAT ARE TRUE WERE BRACING!" Grace Kavanagh and Richard P. Miller, Singers and Pianists. "Gustav—You, That Are True" (The Modern Songwriters and Artists Series, Columbia and Victor).

 "HE FELL IN LOVE WITH HIS WIFE" AT CRYSTAL
 THEATER THURSDAY

It may sound like a queer title for a photoplay, but if you like a story well acted, you will not fail to see why and how "He Fell in Love With His Wife."

This production opens with a situation that grips your interest and holds it through to the finish. Many and unexpected complications arise, but Florence Rockwell, as Alida Armstrong, gives a portrayal of charm and sweetness that will completely win you. Forrest Stanley, as James Holcroft, is the same fine looking, manly actor that has appeared in other productions from the Pallas studios.

The book has enjoyed such a large sale that it is now one of the standard works of English fiction.

 MARY PICKFORD IN
 "MADAME BUTTERFLY."
 OPERA HOUSE THURSDAY
 *****

It is rarely indeed that the motion picture public has been privileged to witness so exquisitely artistic a performance as that of Mary Pickford in the Famous Players Film Company's screen adaptation of John Luther Long's immortal classic, "Madame Butterfly." The screen version of this famous love tale, celebrated in opera, novel and play, has preserved and enhanced all the poetic beauty and tenderness of the original. As the forsaken Cho-Cho-San, the little maid of the Flowery Kingdom, patiently waiting through the long months for the return of her faithless husband, Mary Pickford presents an innocent, confiding, pathetic figure, who proceeds through her many sorrows with unconquerable courage and endurance. Only an actress of Miss Pickford's remarkable magnetism and dramatic power could have presented a pantomimic impersonation of this famed character that will stand comparison with the artistry of the stage and operatic standards already established. For pure pathos and dramatic appeal, the photo-production of "Madame Butterfly" has few equals in the whole realm of fiction, stage or screen.

GERMANS CROUCH READY UNDER GUNS OF VERDUN

(By International News Service.)

PARIS, March 22.—The Germans are opening a terrific bombardment on the town of Esnes from the northwest. The French forces are vigorously contesting each new move on the part of the enemy.

It is reported that the plan of the Kaiser's forces is to flank Verdun on the west and work in behind the heavy artillery of the redoubt. Thousands of Teutons lie dead and wounded on the battlefields because of the mass formation used in the infantry attacks.

There seems to be undoubted proof that the Germans are in absolute possession of the famous Deadman's hill and are busy mounting guns to batter the inner defences of Verdun. The point is of tremendous strategic value because of its height and proximity to the great French stronghold.

Today the infantry forces are resting on their arms, waiting for the supreme effort to take Verdun by storm. The defenders have brought up all available reinforcements and are preparing to stand their ground regardless of loss of life.

An item of general interest which has escaped earlier mention is that of the birth of a daughter on Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. George E. Pollard, of Clermont. Mrs. Pollard and the baby are at Dr. Klock's hospital and are reported to be doing nicely. Mr. Pollard, who has been in the city for a few days, expects to leave today for Clermont. Mrs. Pollard is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Stilling, of this city and has many friends here.

Mrs. W. D. Stark and little son, W. D. Stark, Jr., and Mr. Stark's mother and sister, Mrs. Lamar Stark and Mrs. W. H. Leahy, and young son, William Leahy, arrived this afternoon from Jacksonville and will be with Mr. Stark during the remainder of his stay in Daytona, occupying a cottage on the ocean beach.

Frank Hardy and Edward Hills and family and Mr. Hills' mother, Mrs. S. E. Hills, of Hollis, N. H., came to Daytona, Tuesday afternoon, from Merritts Island, where they had been with Mrs. C. H. Abbott during the winter on her homestead on the island. Mr. Hills is a nephew of Mrs. Abbott and is also related by marriage to W. A. Bennett of this city and Milford, N. H., who met them on their arrival. They will spend a few days here and then continue their journey northward.

Every day is summer in Daytona.

VOLUSIA COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY MET AT ORMOND

MEMBERS WERE ENTERTAINED

AT DINNER AT THE HOTEL OR-

MOND TUESDAY NIGHT BY DR.

J. BLAKE WHITE.

The Volusia County Medical society was entertained by Dr. J. Blake White at the Hotel Ormond, Tuesday night. After dinner an excellent of a paper specially prepared for the society by Dr. Audrey Downs, of the Medico-Chirurgical college of Philadelphia, Pa. Dr. Downs is a professor of physiology. This paper was read by Dr. Dean Smith. Also a discussion on the contagium of tuberculosis, opened by Dr. White.

Dr. Hiram Hunt, an ex-president of the Maine Medical association, was present, also Dr. John E. Weeks, a noted oculist from New York city.

The discussion on Vitamine (Dr. Down's paper) was most interesting. Vitamine is an extraction (necessary to life) from rice bran. It now is generally known that polished rice is improper food as it contains none of this life giving property. This extends to other grains and makes whole wheat bread the more necessary. It is interesting from the newer developments in the cause of pellagra to study these cereal derivatives. Animals fed on polished rice soon die.

Those present were Dr. Davis Foster, Hawks Park, secretary; Dr. J. F. Walter, Daytona, president; Dr. C. C. Bohannon, Daytona, vice president; Dr. Jos. P. Esch, Daytona Beach; Dr. Hiram Hunt, Greenville, Maine; Dr. Robert A. Holland, Calais, Me.; Dr. J. Blake White, Ormond Beach; Dr. L. B. Bouchelle, New Smyrna; Dr. Wood, New Smyrna; Dr. H. M. Masters, Port Orange; Dr. Du Bois, Port Orange; Dr. John E. Weeks, New York city; Dr. W. E. Chowning, New Smyrna; Dr. McGunagle, Daytona.

The next meeting of the society will be in DeLand, April 18th.

At the regular meeting of the Commercial Club held in the clubroom in the Conrad-Bullard block Tuesday evening a committee consisting of Commodore Burgoyne, W. M. Hankins and T. E. Fitzgerald, was appointed to work in conjunction with the local bankers' committee in the entertainment of the Florida Bankers' Association, which convenes here April 7 and 8. It is planned to ask the business places to decorate for the occasion and the town will be placed in gala attire during the visit of the financial men.
